NARI President's Message

Welcome to the 2022 NARI Directory! It is my honor and privilege to represent the best of the best in the remodeling industry. One of the goals of our organization is to help you choose the best remodeling professionals for your home or business. This directory includes information on the most highly experienced and diverse set of craftsmen, experts, and professionals available in the industry in an effort to help in your selection of professionals. Our members look forward to assisting you with your remodeling project whether as general contractor, material supplier or subcontractor, vendor or professional service provider.

NARI members pledge to uphold NARI's code of ethics and are committed to excellence, continuing education and adhering to the highest safety and professional standards for their employees, clients and colleagues. Our members pledge to observe high standards of honesty, integrity, and responsibility and they look forward to making your remodeling dreams come true.

We hope that this directory provides you with valuable resources for your remodeling project. Inside this directory you will find contact information for the best of the best that the industry has to offer. Regardless of whether your project is large or small our members strive to ensure a successful project.

In addition to this directory, we invite you to visit our NARI of Madison website (www.NARIMadison.org), member websites, virtual tours, Contractor of the Year photos and award winner information, and tons of project photos that are available. We are committed to bringing inspiration and resources to you, and giving you the care and support that you have come to expect from a NARI branded professional.

If you are a remodeling professional, consider applying for membership or at least visiting us at an upcoming meeting or event to see all of the benefits that we have to offer. There are many opportunities to meet and engage with fellow members, continue your professional development, and mentor and develop your employees.

Thank you for your time in reviewing our directory and giving consideration to our organization and its members.

We look forward to serving you in 2022!

NARI of MADISON FOUNDATION INC. a 501c3 corporation, was established in 2012 by a group of dedicated NARI Professionals who are committed to the growth and development of the next generation of skilled construction trade professionals. Although a separate entity from NARI of Madison, we share a common mission to elevate the entire remodeling industry through educational endeavors and professional development.

OUR MISSION

To raise funds and provide opportunities for programs and scholarships to support education in the remodeling industry. With the generous support of NARI of Madison and community members, we have helped fund scholarships for students of the Construction and Remodeling and Interior Design Programs at Madison College. We look forward to continuing to serve our mission and providing additional opportunities in the future. Fundraising is ongoing and we are always looking for fundraising ideas or potential educational programs to help further our mission. If you have an idea for us, please contact any of the directors or the NARI office at nari@narimadison.org or 608-222-0670.

MCR/CR/CRS/CLC/CRC/GPC/UDCP

The certification of a remodeling contractor under the certification program of the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) is the association's recognition that the contractor has met certain criteria for experience, commitment to ethical conduct and professionalism.

Master Certified Remodeler (MCR): a CR of 10+ years who holds another NARI certification and has demonstrated leadership within NARI or within the local community.

Certified Remodeler (CR): a professional remodeler who provides a full range of remodeling services. Candidates must prove they possess skill and knowledge in a broad range of business management and technical skill areas.

Certified Remodeler Specialist (CRS): a professional remodeler who specializes in a specific type of work, such as concrete and masonry, electrical, insulation, mechanical systems, plumbing systems and roofing and siding.

Certified Lead Carpenter (CLC): a hands-on field pro who oversees the technical aspect of the project, including personnel management and material flow while working on the project.

Certified Remodeler Project Manager (CRPM): a pro who oversees every administrative aspect of the project: customer satisfaction, scheduling subcontractors, record-keeping, risk management, and much more. A CRPM may work full time on one project or oversee several at one time, depending on the scope.

Green Certified Professional (GCP): a pro who considers energy efficiency, sustainability and maximizing nature's resources and energy in an efficient and responsible manner, both in the conduct of their business and in design and construction of a client's remodeling project.

Universal Design Certified Professional (UDCP): a pro who handles renovations that are appealing not only for "aging in place," but for anybody who wishes to move about his or her home freely, without barrier and without giving their home that "institutional" look. Families who have members with special needs also benefit from a UDCP.

How to select a remodeler

When planning a potential home remodeling project, it's important to work with a trustworthy team of professionals. In times of distress such as natural disasters caused by weather including flooding, heavy wind and winter storm damage, unscrupulous contractors can prey on victims who seek to remedy their damaged property.

The National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) provides homeowners with helpful ways to find a qualified, professional remodeler or contractor.

Word-of-Mouth Referrals are Key

The best way to find qualified, professional help is through word-of-mouth referrals. Local remodelers or contractors are an excellent way to find a professional. Common sources for qualified remodeler or contractors include:

- ▶ Relatives/friends/neighbors
- ▶ Business colleagues
- ▶ Lenders
- ▶ Real estate agents
- ▶ Local material supplier (lumber yards, specialty product providers, etc.)
- ▶ Trusted websites like www.narimadison.org

Seven Tips to Find a Qualified Remodeler

NARI provides the following tips to inform the selection process and help homeowners make an informed decision that best suits their needs.

1. Stay Local

Local remodelers are compelled to perform quality work that satisfies their customers in order for their business to survive. Local firms can be checked through references including past customers in your community or through your local NARI chapter.

2. Follow Local Building Codes

Another advantage to hiring a local professional is that they will know the local building code and permit requirements for your town or city. Building codes vary considerably from each jurisdiction and are known to change from year to year. Most structural work or footprint expansions require permits.

3. Check for License and Insurance

Many states, but not all, require contractors to be licensed, bonded and/or insured. Contact your state or local licensing agencies to ensure the contractor meets all requirements. Most states require a contractor to carry worker's compensation, property damage, and personal liability insurance. Ask for a copy of their license and insurance certificate to make sure that it is current.

4. Check for Violations and Complaints

Check with your Consumer Affairs Office and the Better Business Bureau to ensure there are no complaints on record for the contractor. Check to make sure they are a NARI member. Search NARI members and Find a Remodeler in your local area.

5. Compare Apples with Apples

If you solicit estimates from more than one remodeling contractor, be sure they are working off the same scope and quality of work. Discuss variations in prices, and beware of any estimate that is substantially lower than the others.

6. Be Informed

A good remodeling professional educates clients on green remodeling, universal design, lead safety, new products, building techniques and trends. Make sure you're hiring someone who has knowledge and expertise relevant to the remodeling industry. NARI offers eight certifications and provides education and training.

7. Always Check References

Don't rely on a contractor's personality or demeanor. If a professional does not offer references, ask for them and follow up with a site visit or phone call.
